Job Ch. 1-3, 23:10

25 Job who overcame suffering

Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered My servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man, one who fears God and _____? And still he holds fast to his integrity, although you incited Me against him, to destroy him without cause." So Satan answered the LORD and said, "Skin for skin! Yes, all that a man has he will give for his life. But stretch out your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will surely curse You and Your face!" And the LORD said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your hand, but spare his life."(Job 2:3-6)

But He knows the way that I take; when He has _____, I shall come forth as gold" (Job 23:10)

Job, who is estimated to be a person from Abraham to Jacob's time, was a righteous man of the time, a diligent person to God. However, Satan claimed that Job was only diligent because he received wealth and healthy body from God. Satan received permission from God to take away those things from him to test him. Satan took away his belongings and his children. He even caused painful boils on his body.

A while after, Job's three friends visited him and told him all things had been caused by Job's sins and that he should repent. These words were not comforting to Job at all.

After Job had gone through the suffering, he realized that all afflictions were to test and train him and to only trust in God. He got to know God more and God blessed him twice as more than before.
